

The SCCA-Washington, D.C. Region and the MGs of Baltimore present the 2009 Mason-Dixon Trials

This is an automotive competition held on the public roads at legal speeds. You must follow a prescribed route of approximately 65 miles at given average speeds. Along the route, you will pass checkpoints where your passage will be timed. You are scored according to how closely you maintained those speeds between checkpoints. The route will consist of a series of “trials” with varying types of instructions for each trial. MARS and SCCA class teams will be given a separate set of instructions which will be considerably more difficult than those that the Historic, Novice, and “Seat of the Pants” teams will use.

WHEN: Sunday July 26th. Registration opens at 10:00 AM. First car off at 11:01.

START: Park and Ride, Middletown Road and Interstate 83 (Maryland exit 31 of I-83)
 Approximately 22 miles south of York, PA or 15 miles north of Timonium, MD.

FINISH: LaMotte’s Restaurant, New Freedom, PA

Classes: For those contesting the Mid Atlantic Rally Series or the SCCA National championship; SCCA Equipped, Limited, Stock, and Novice classes are offered. For those with limited experience and equipment we suggest the Seat-of-the-Pants class (SOP) or “Historic” for teams with cars manufactured prior to 1984.
