Come out and join instructors from the MGs of Baltimore and the Sports Car Club of America to learn or brush up on the skills of automotive road rallying. There will be two sessions presented. In the morning (coffee included) the basics of rallying and route following will be covered, followed by an actual rally to gain first-hand experience and application of the topics presented. After a light lunch of hot dogs, chips, and soft drinks the instructors will take you through several types of timekeeping: classic stock class method, use of tables, EZ method, and enhanced “seat of the pants” method. The students will then select a method to try on a re-run of the morning event.

The single registration fee includes a “How to Rally” book for your permanent reference, morning coffee, and lunch. You may attend all day, or just the morning or afternoon session. (Sorry—no price break for partial day attendance!) In order to cover all of this material, our schedule is tight—preregister and be on hand at 10:00 a.m.

Please preregister! Due to the amount of printed material that you will receive and to adequately plan for the refreshments and lunch that will be served we need to know how many people will be in attendance. Otherwise, awkward shortages in food or printed materials maybe unavoidable. Registrations are due by April 11th.
